

INSIDER TRIPS:

FRUGALISTA

Not everyone eats at the French Laundry and shops at David's Jewelers. A person who is fashionable while being thrifty sounds like Napa to us.

eat:

There are restaurants with amazing food that won't break the bank. For breakfast, Model Bakery, at Oxbow Market, has a great breakfast sandwich and coffee. At lunch, save your transportation dollars and walk across the street to La Taquiza Fish Tacos (awarded a Bib Gourmand by Michelin) For dinner, try ZuZu. They offer a selection of small plates at small prices.

drink:

Have a glass of wine on the patio at Bottega. They serve the wine in a quartino, so you are really getting a glass and a half. See and be seen.

play:

Fun and inexpensive activities for the Frugalista include Napa Premium Outlets; art walks in nearby Yountville; or a stroll through the quaint town of St. Helena.

pack:

Be sure to pack all those "smart" bargains you got at Gilt Group and Last Call Online.
